

Post Test Answer Key – FWRA

| Question: True or False? | Answer |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The facility can wait to prepare the facility wide resource assessment until their next annual survey. | False – Even if the facility annual survey is later in the year, the survey team or investigator can ask any time 11/28/17 or after. |
| 2. The facility does not have to assess the acuity of the resident population for the FWRA. | False – the facility must assess the acuity of the resident population. |
| 3. The purpose of the FWRA is to determine resources needed to care for residents during day to day operations and in emergencies. | True |
| 4. The cultural, religious, and ethnic factors of the residents must be considered in the FWRA. | True |
| 5. Only resident care areas need to be addressed or included in the FWRA. | False – All areas of the physical plant including non-resident areas must be addressed or included. |
| 6. Contracts and memos of understanding must be addressed or included in the FWRA. | True |
| 7. Budgetary guidance cannot be used in determining sufficient staffing. | False – budgetary guidelines are an important part of assessing resources. |
| 8. The recommended participants on the FWRA team include the Medical Director. | True |